

Anke Fox
Introduction to Tapestry
Biography

Since graduating from the NSCAD University in Halifax in 1992 with a Major in Textiles and a Minor in Art History, Anke Fox has been actively pursuing her career in textiles as an artist, designer and educator.

Anke Fox has created textiles for over 25 years and has developed a very high level of craftsmanship in her field. Through her exploration of cloth she has acquired a broad range of techniques, from tapestry weaving to screen printing large scale photographic imagery, from dyeing with lichens and rust to heat transfer dye sublimation, from back-strap weaving to digital weaving and laser cutting.

Anke Fox has exhibited her textiles in North America, Europe and Asia, has received numerous grants to pursue her craft and won various awards for her work.

For more information have a look at: www.ankefox.com